

Conducting a Voter Registration Drive in Vermont

Voter Registration Deadline

Voter registration forms may be submitted to a town clerk any day other than the day of an Election. Note: voters may also submit a voter registration form on Election Day at their polling place.

Drives must submit completed forms to town clerks within 7 days of receipt or by the day before the election, whichever comes first.

Getting Started

Training Requirement: Vermont does not require training for registration drives. The Secretary of State's page on how to conduct a voter registration drive is located here:

sos.vermont.gov/elections/voters/registration/#drive

Notification and Registration Requirements:

Vermont does not have notification requirements for registration drives.

Compensation Restrictions: Do not pay registration drive participants based on how many registrations they collect. Do not offer an applicant any incentive of monetary value to register to vote.

Photocopying Completed Applications: As a best practice, a voter's full or partial Social Security number and/or driver's license number should not be retained.

Submitting Completed Applications: Completed voter registration forms must be submitted to the appropriate town clerk within seven days of acceptance or before the day of the next election, whichever is sooner:
